PRESS RELEASE: Quintessential Hip-Hop group Mobb Deep brings 20th anniversary tour to Columbia to benefit Love Peace & Hip-Hop, March 10th at The Music Farm

February 29, 2016 (Columbia, S.C.): Mobb Deep, one of the most critically acclaimed groups in Hip-Hop history will headline the first of two benefit concerts for Love, Peace & Hip-Hop on Thursday March 10th at The Music Farm in Downtown Columbia, SC.

The Queens, NY duo are best known for their two classic albums, The Infamous (1995) and Hell on Earth (1996), the latter of which celebrates its 20 year anniversary in 2016. Both albums are considered to be classics among avid Hip-Hop listeners and critics. Mobb Deep is partially credited for the resurgence of the East Coast in the mid-1990s and briefly disbanded in 2012 after a feud occurred between its members. But that feud has been long since has since been resolved and they have reunited for this 20th anniversary tour. Their eighth studio album The Infamous Mobb Deep was released on April 1, 2014.

“Mobb Deep is a large part of the reason FatRat Da Czar exists,” states South Carolina hip-hop’s elder statesman, who will be opening the show. “Their music has had a heavy influence on my craft and mean so much to those of us that came of age in Hip-Hop’s second Golden Age from 1993-1997. Love, Peace & Hip-Hop recognizes the importance of celebrating all of the many styles and eras of hip-hop, while also offering an event that allows our core 25-40 audience an opportunity to leave the kids at home and have a grown-up good time.”

Joining FatRat as openers are his carefully crafted New Success Culture (NewSC) and Columbia’s rising hip-hop young gun, H3RO. Tickets are available online at musicfarm.com or the following locations: Papa Jazz, The Jam Room, Esquire Clothing, Area 57 and at the Music Farm Box Office. About Mobb Deep:

Mobb Deep is a hip-hop duo made up of Havoc and Prodigy. Both members are natives of Queensbridge, New York; located in Long Island City. They are perhaps most famous for their landmark album, The Infamous, and the accompanying hit single, Shook Ones Pt. II. The duo will be celebrating the 20th year of their classic album “Hell on Earth” with a tour that will be making it’s stop in Columbia on March 10th Hop’s history. In the 1990s as “hip-hop” grew more and more commercialized and corporate, it was KRS-One that openly rejected such cultural exploitation and materialism grounding Hip Hop in its original principles of peace, love, unity and safely having fun.

ABOUT LOVE PEACE, & HIP-HOP:

HipHop Family Day was created to ensure that hiphop, represented properly, can be a the medium through which all ages and races can come together for a day of peace, love, unity and having fun. This is accomplished by combining some of the of best and brightest live performers, DJs, BBoy dance crews, hiphop visual artists, craft and fashion vendors to create South Carolina's most unique and entertaining community experience. By utilizing the power of hiphop to unify the community, we create the magnet that allows our citizens, through charity and awareness, to support nonprofit organizations that offer direct services to our community.
